First Meeting of the Working Group on Development

Supplier and Manufacturer Evaluation Indicators

The first meeting of the working group on developing evaluation indicators for suppliers and manufacturers (February 2025), proposed by Jam Petrochemical Company, was held with the participation of the National Petrochemical Industries Company, Nouri Petrochemical Company, Zagros Petrochemical Company, and the presence of professors from the University of Tehran.

Developing Evaluation Indicators

The primary objective of developing evaluation indicators for suppliers and manufacturers is to improve the quality and efficiency of the supply chain and ensure that the needs and expectations of organizations are met. These indicators enable organizations to systematically and objectively evaluate the performance of suppliers and manufacturers.

Key Objectives of Evaluation

Evaluating the quality of products and services, reducing risks, improving supply chain performance, enhancing competitiveness, strengthening relationships with suppliers, and reducing costs. In general, the development of evaluation indicators enables organizations to make more informed decisions in selecting and managing suppliers and manufacturers, ultimately leading to improved overall organizational performance.
